LOURDES CHAVEZ

Lourdes is a fitting heir to the legacy of a fabled Hollywood designer who made glamorous movie stars look even lovelier. She began her career of designing for the stars by winning the Nolan Miller Dynasty Contest and creating an outfit worn by Linda Evans. She believes that a woman should know herself and her style and choose the clothing that most suits her - not just what "fashion" dictates.

TRIXI SCHOBER

The German designer, Trixi Schober, makes fashion for women who do not mix up feeling for style, with styling – they remain true to themselves and do not submit to every fashion trend.

KEVAN HALL

The Kevan Hall Collection emphasizes purity of style, incomparable tailoring and sensuously draped streamlined silhouettes; Hall has a natural sense of sophisticated elegance and uncluttered modern design.

RAFFINALLA

The Raffinalla collection appeals to the modern woman whose need for enduring clothes equals her desire for luxury.
